++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A showery day in northwest, some brightness in the east.

Today:
Rather cloudy at time with scattered showers, most frequent for Sutherland, some longer spells of rain possible here too. Best of the drier and brighter weather in the east towards Inverness. Cool northerly breezes. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with showers continuing and strengthening northerly winds will make it feel quite chilly. A few clear spells towards the Great Glen. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Fresh to strong northerly winds will push showers into the north again on Wednesday and a real cold feel to the day. Best of the brightness towards Inverness again. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A cold, but bright and sunny, start on Thursday, cloudier in the west. Cloudier and milder on Friday with outbreaks of rain. Likely a wet and windy day on Saturday.
